

ALUMNI NEWSLETTER

FROM THE PSU ACTUARIAL SCIENCE PROGRAM

Actuarial Science Career Fair

Be a part of Penn State's Actuarial Career Fair this September 22nd, by contacting our Corporate Liaison Dave Bastian at dab416@psu.edu. The standard registration fee is $250. We have the largest Actuarial Career Fair in the Country as far as we know. Over 30 companies and 300 students attend. We have more actuarial students passing actuarial exams than any other school in the US.

Alumni Dinner: PSU Actuarial Alums are gathering that evening at 8:30pm for dinner after the Career Fair at the Allen Street Grill (at the corner of Allen and College Avenue). Please let Ron Gebhardtsbauer rug16@psu.edu know if you are interested in attending.

PLEASE THANK OUR TOP SPONSORS

ALUMNI SPOTLIGHT

Olga Jacobs, FSA, MAAA, Class of '87

has been recruiting PSU Actuarial students for United Health Care for many years at our Career Fair, and we love her for it. Thru her encouragement, UHC became a sponsor of our actuarial program, which is very important to us since we really depend on those funds for everything we do. She is on Penn State's Actuarial Science Advisory Board, and is a founding member of the Actuarial Leadership Development Program at UHC.

Olga is running for the SOA Board. We encourage you to consider voting for her. Let's get a Penn Stater on the SOA Board! You can find more about Olga here.

Student Newsletters: You can read about the interesting things our students are doing in the student newsletters. The most recent one lists the students who passed exams and where they got jobs and internships. Is your company on the list?

Wakely is looking for an ASA or near ASA (4+ exams) with at least 5 years of experience in healthcare actuarial work assisting health plans and/or governmental agencies. This position could be near Denver, in Minneapolis or Clearwater, FL. See www.wakely.com/employment/actuarial-consultant

Thank you Employers for hiring us!

If you would like to unsubscribe from this list serve, please email Luke Yang

JOB ANNOUNCEMENTS

Virginia Farm Bureau
Senior Actuarial Analyst – P&C

The Virginia Farm Bureau has an exciting opportunity available at our Home Office in Richmond, VA for an ambitious senior level Actuarial Analyst to work on rate changes, product development, management decisions, review competitor rate filings, update pricing models, and assist in personal lines Predictive Modeling.

Qualified candidates need a degree in Math, Stat, or Actuarial Science with a min of 7 years in the P&C field, have extensive PC skills with databases, spreadsheets, and Word. Work with mainframe databases, the ability to format analytical reports and exchange information between mainframes and PCs, both auto and homeowners insurance is a plus. Send resume with salary history & salary requirements to employment@vafb.com